

TO: Pastors and Pastoral Administrators
FROM: Cecelia Price, Sue Brodfehrer, Ed Harpring
RE: Fortnight for Freedom, June 21-July 4
DATE: May 29, 2015

The 2015 celebration of the Fortnight for Freedom takes place from June 21 to July 4. The theme for 2015 is “Freedom to Bear Witness,” which focuses on how religious freedom enables us to bear witness to the truth of the Gospel. We encourage use of these suggested materials in whatever way best suits your parish. On the back of this sheet you can find 14 suggestions for utilizing some of these materials.

We are providing attachments to some materials in the email version of this letter that has been sent this week and links to all materials (except Homily Helps) at www.archlou.org/fortnight. If you cannot access something, please let us know by contacting cprice@archlou.org, and we will send hard copies.

Attachments noted below will be sent by email. Links for everything else (except Homily Helps) are available at www.archlou.org/fortnight:

Prayer

Fortnight Mass Prayer (prayer to be said during Mass)/en Español (Attachment to email)
Homily Helps for Sunday and Daily Masses during Fortnight (2 attachments to email; not provided online.)
Eucharistic Holy Hour Template/en Español
Prayers of the Faithful/en Español
Litany for Liberty/en Español
Downloadable Prayer Cards (Longer Prayer) in English/en Español

Education

Fortnight for Freedom Bulletin Blurbs/en Español (Attachment to email)
Pope Francis on Religious Freedom
14-Day Reflections on Dignitatis Humanae /en Español
Religious Liberty Fact Sheets (3 to choose from in English/en Español; 1 in English only)
Religious Liberty Videos
Archbishop Kurtz column about marriage and religious liberty

Action

Call to Prayer Facebook Page
Text Campaign Information
Catholic Conference of Kentucky Faithful Citizen Advocate Sign-up
USCCB Action Alerts Center
Sign up for the Call to Prayer: Pledge to Fast - Intentions and Reflections

Please continue to check www.Fortnight4Freedom.org for updated information about the 2015 Fortnight.

Remember to let The Record know about any special plans you have for this period. Thank you for your cooperation.