

SERRA CLUB OF LOUISVILLE
Membership Dues and Terms
As of 8-23-2016

Membership dues are calculated based on Serra National and International assessments and local functions supported by the Serra Club of Louisville.

The membership costs are kept at a low rate so as to not put any hardship on a member.

Membership cost and terms are as follows:

Membership after 1 year.....$220.00 annually.
Billing is $110.00 every 6 months (Dec and June).

A new member pays 50% less for the first year after joining ($110.00).

Spouses membership fees are 50% ($110) each year as long as their spouse is a member. Their cost for lunch and listening to the speaker is $12.00.

Meals are $12.00 each (see below) (payable upon entry to the meeting room) on the first and third Monday of the month when we meet. Payment is required if you attend even if you do not eat there.

Visitors terms are:

Members bringing a visitor (sponsored), do not pay for the visitor's meal, it's free the first time.

Visitors from an office of the Archdiocese are expected to pay $15.00.

Visitors and Deacons who attend after the first sponsored meeting must pay $15.00 for the meal and attendance each time they attend.

The speaker's guest(s) will be asked to pay $15.00 each for their meals. Clergy and Religious Sisters do not pay nor does the speaker pay to eat. Deacons are allowed to eat free on their first visit.

There will be a cost to the member's and their guest's meal's at the Retired Religious Sister's Luncheon event in early December each year. The amount will be announced a month before the event.

An "Associate Member" is a person who is unable to attend regular meetings but wishes to maintain membership in the Serra Club. The member must have been a member for at least 3 years and the yearly cost of membership is $50.00.

Note: The location of our meetings have changed. There will be a notice sent to you advising you of the current location for the meeting.
