GIFT OF JOY: THE BLESSING OF THE CHILD IN THE WOMB

Archbishop Kurtz/Msgr. Bransfield

The presence of new life in the womb of the mother brings unique joy and hope to the center of our families, our Church and our world. It is the ultimate gift. At this very same moment when God created your child, He also created you as a mother and as a father.

This is an incredible new beginning as the gift of life is already unfolding, and Christ rejoices with you in the moment.

Your child has, along with God, not only given you a gift ... but an invitation as well — an invitation to grow in your faith, an invitation to accept the support of your parish community, and an invitation to more fully embrace your relationship with Christ.

Gift of Joy is part of that invitation — a tiny treasure to help you celebrate and understand your unique role as a parent and recipient of God's gift of life. It also introduces you to the experience of the blessing of the Church through The Rite for the Blessing of a Child in the Womb.

MY SACRIFICE AND YOURS: OUR PARTICIPATION IN THE EUCHARIST

Paul Turner

The Mass is the prayer of the Church. It's not just the prayer of the priest — it is our prayer — the prayer of the baptized people of God. As a baptized people, we share in the priestly ministry of Christ! As priestly ministers of Christ, we all share in his sacrifice and unite our sufferings and burdens with his every time we gather to offer prayer, praise, and thanksgiving to him at Mass. In this short booklet, Paul Turner unpacks the meaning of the sacrifice of the Mass. In pastoral language, he explores more deeply how our participation in the Mass unites us to Christ. Through this guided reflection, we will become aware of the sacrifice Christ made for us, how we participate in this sacrifice each time we gather and participate in the Eucharistic mystery, and how we give back as his disciples. Each section in this booklet is concluded with questions for discussion and reflection questions which may be used in small or large group settings or for personal reflection.

GUIDE FOR CELEBRATING WORSHIP OF THE EUCHARIST OUTSIDE MASS

John Thomas Lane, SSS

Praying in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament outside of Mass has been a part of Catholic tradition for centuries. Although participation in the Eucharist at Mass is the “source and summit of the Christian life” (Lumen Gentium, 11) praying before the Eucharist after Mass continues the grace received at Mass and leads us into fuller participation at the Eucharistic table.

There are many ways to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament and the Church provides particular guidelines for these opportunities for prayer. In this resource, John Thomas Lane, SSS, traces the historical developments of these practices from the early Church to the post-Conciliar reform. Lane walks through the various rituals, providing a theological context for best parish practices. This book addresses the following: The Rite of Exposition and Benediction; Perpetual Exposition; Perpetual Adoration; Holy Hours and Forty Hours; The Corpus Christi procession; The Transfer of the Most Blessed Sacrament on Holy Thursday; Youth and Exposition; Eucharistic Congresses and their significance for the parish.

LITURGY IN A CULTURALLY DIVERSE COMMUNITY: A GUIDE

Mark Francis, CSV

In 1998, FDLIC commissioned Rev. Mark R. Francis, C.S.V., to write a guideline for preparing multicultural liturgies. Father Francis and Brother Rufino Zaragoza, O.F.M., revisit the topic in this bilingual English-Spanish book. They outline the principles inherent in truly multicultural liturgies to assist liturgists, music directors, and others who prepare worship to promote the full participation of everyone in a culturally diverse assembly. To achieve this goal, they present, in detail, the varied ways in which the liturgy communicates through words, gesture, movement, art, and environment.

CHRISTUS VIVIT, CHRIST IS ALIVE

Pope Francis

“Christ is alive!” proclaims the pope. Pope Francis’s new Post-Synodal Apostolic Exhortation Christus Vivit calls to “all Christian young people” and the People of God, including pastors and the faithful, and urges them to the youthful newness of life in Christ! The pope proposes that youth engage the joy of a living God, the richness of their Catholic faith, and the strength of living in Christian community. He illuminates the Scriptures to give youth tangible hope and draw them more fully into the Church. And in a time of new technology and transformative social changes, the pope challenges youth to take the grounded path of generous sacrifice and faithful companionship with peers, family, neighbors, and elders. Pope Francis knows committed and bold youth and young adults can change our world! He listened to youthful voices from all over the world during the synod on young people.
