

REPORT ON MISSION

Archdiocesan Response to Sexual Abuse

The Charter for the Protection of Children and Young People provides a comprehensive framework for addressing allegations of sexual abuse and for creating safe environments in parishes and schools. In the fall of 2019, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops audited the Archdiocese for the 16th time. This audit found the Archdiocese of Louisville to be fully compliant with all elements of the Charter, with no required changes or recommendations for changes.

Prevention/Education

- Archbishop Kurtz continues to send periodic e-briefings on the topic of sexual abuse (Archbishop's Leadership Briefing – www.archlou.org/archbishops-leadership-briefings) to more than 2,600 pastoral leaders and key volunteers. Archbishop Kurtz wrote seven editions in FY 19-20.
- The Archdiocese trained 2,341 employees and volunteers in 40 safe environment workshops during the past fiscal year, and the same individuals received a criminal background check. Since the program began in 2003, 54,384 individuals have been trained. The Family Ministries Office staff who provides safe environment training adapted workshops for the COVID-19 pandemic so that attendees could receive training safely after March of 2020. For more information, see www.archlou.org/safe.
- Children in schools and religious education programs of the Archdiocese participate in various approved training programs, such as Speak up Be Safe, Theology of the Body, Safe Sheep, and other religious education curriculum.
- The Honor Thy Children newsletter is emailed monthly to all pastors, principals, pastoral associates, parish catechetical leaders, youth ministers, parish safe environment coordinators, counselors, and business managers.
- The Archdiocese sent bulletin blurbs about sexual abuse to parishes and schools for Sexual Abuse Prevention Month in April.
- Extensive information is online about child abuse prevention, resources for parents, safe environment programs, and other materials. See www.archlou.org/restoringtrust.
