

SEASON OF ADVENT 2023

Sunday Cycle B; Weekdays Year II
2 December 2023 – 24 December 2023

The liturgical year begins on the First Sunday of Advent. This year, the Season of Advent begins with Evening Prayer I on Saturday evening, December 2, 2023, and ends after Midafternoon Prayer (Nones) on Sunday, December 24, 2023.

SEASONAL FOCUS

“Advent has a twofold character, for it is a time of preparation for the Solemnities of Christmas, in which the First Coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by remembrance of this, minds and hearts are led to look forward to Christ’s Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reasons, Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight.” (UNLY #39)

LECTIONARY

- ⌘ Beginning with the First Sunday of Advent, 2023, Cycle B readings are proclaimed. Year II readings are proclaimed for weekdays.
- ⌘ Volume I of the Liturgy of the Hours is used until the end of the Christmas season. Beginning with Compline on December 2, 2023, the final anthem may be Alma Redemptoris mater.
- ⌘ A homily is always done on Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. “On other days it is recommended, especially on the weekdays of Advent...” (GIRM #66)

It may be prudent to remind the faithful that the obligation to attend Mass for the 4th Sunday of Advent is separate and distinct from the Christmas obligation. Some possibilities for meeting both obligations include:

- 12/23 Saturday Evening Mass + 12/24 Sunday Evening Mass
- 12/23 Saturday Evening Mass + 12/25 Monday Mass at any time
- 12/24 Sunday Morning Mass + 12/24 Sunday Evening Mass
- 12/24 Sunday Mass at any time + 12/25 Monday Mass at any time

SCHEDULING NOTE: Christmas Eve on a Sunday poses a particular challenge for the schedule of Masses. Priests are ordinarily limited to celebrating or concelebrating Mass no more than 3 times on December 24 (Canon 905 / GIRM #204). This law should be observed if at all possible. Parishes may elect to change the schedule of Masses (e.g. combining two Sunday morning Masses into one), so long as the faithful are reasonably able to meet the 4th Sunday of Advent obligation. Archbishop Fabre extends permission on this occasion only for priests to celebrate more than 3 Masses on December 24, only if it is necessary for the benefit of the faithful.

Reminder: Masses for Christmas Eve may not begin before 4:00 p.m.

RITUAL CELEBRATIONS

- ⌘ The funeral Mass may not be used on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception or on the Sundays of Advent. The funeral liturgy outside Mass may be celebrated on any day during Advent. (GIRM #380, OCF #271)
- ⌘ The nuptial Mass may not be used on the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception or on the Sundays of Advent. The Order for Celebrating Matrimony without Mass may be celebrated on any day during Advent. (OCM #34)
- ⌘ The norms for music and worship environment during the season of Advent (outlined below) apply equally to ritual celebrations during this time, such as weddings and funerals.
- ⌘ A communal celebration of the Sacrament of Reconciliation according to Rite II of the Rite of Penance is one way of assisting the people of God in preparing for the Solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord. Such a liturgy might best be celebrated during the latter part of the Advent Season, and on a weekday rather than a Sunday.

MUSIC

- ⌘ “In Advent the use of the organ and other musical instruments should be marked by a moderation suited to the character of this time of year, without expressing in anticipation the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord.” (GIRM #313)
- ⌘ The Gloria is not sung or recited on the Sundays of Advent. However, it is sung or recited on major Feasts within the Advent Season: the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception (Dec. 8), and the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe (Dec. 12). (GIRM #53)
- ⌘ Common Psalms: “The psalm as a rule is drawn from the Lectionary ... Nevertheless, in order that the people may be able to join in the responsorial psalm more readily, some texts of responses and psalms have been chosen, according to the different seasons of the year and classes of saints, for optional use, whenever the psalm is sung, in place of the text corresponding to the reading.” (Lectionary #173/174)
 - ⌘ Common Response for the Season of Advent [Lectionary #173]
“Come, O Lord, and set us free.”
 - ⌘ Common Psalms for the Season of Advent [Lectionary #174]
Psalm 25:4-5, 8-9, 10, 14 – “To you, O Lord, I lift my soul.”
Psalm 85:9-10, 11-12, 13-14 – “Lord, show us your mercy and love.”

WORSHIP ENVIRONMENT

- ⌘ “The official color for the season of Advent is violet. The use of blue vestments for Advent is not approved for the United States.” (Ordo)
- ⌘ “The color rose may be used, where it is the practice, on Gaudete Sunday (Third Sunday of Advent)...” (GIRM #346)
- ⌘ “Moderation should be observed in the decoration of the altar. During Advent the floral decoration of the altar should be marked by a moderation suited to the character of this time of year, without expressing in anticipation the full joy of the Nativity of the Lord.” (GIRM #305)

- ⌘ Christmas decorations should not encroach on the Advent season (GIRM #305). [However, since Christmas Eve is on a Sunday this year and immediately follows the 4th Sunday of Advent, it may be practical or even necessary to have some Christmas decorations in place, perhaps covered, for the celebration of the 4th Sunday of Advent.]
- ⌘ “Plans for seasonal decorations should include other areas besides the sanctuary. Decorations are intended to draw people to the true nature of the mystery being celebrated rather than being ends in themselves. Natural flowers, plants, wreaths and fabric hangings, and other seasonal objects can be arranged to enhance the primary liturgical points of focus. The altar should remain clear and free-standing, not walled in by massive floral displays or the Christmas crib, and pathways in the narthex, nave, and sanctuary should remain clear.” (BLS #124)
- ⌘ “Objects such as the Advent Wreath...proportioned to the size of the space and to the other furnishings can enhance the prayer and understanding of the parish community.” (BLS #128)

BLESSING OF THE ADVENT WREATH (See Book of Blessings #1509-1540)

1509 – The use of the Advent Wreath is a traditional practice which has found its place in the Church as well as in the home. The blessing of the Advent Wreath takes place on the First Sunday of Advent or on the evening before the First Sunday of Advent. The blessing may be celebrated during Mass, a celebration of the word of God, or Evening Prayer.

Lighting of the First Candle

1510 – Customarily the Advent Wreath is constructed of a circle of evergreen branches into which are inserted four candles. According to tradition, three of the candles are violet and the fourth rose. However, four violet or white candles may also be used.

1511 – The candles represent the four weeks of Advent and the number of candles lighted each week corresponds to the number of the current week of Advent. The rose candle is lighted on the Third Sunday of Advent, also known as Gaudete Sunday.

1512 – If the Advent Wreath is to be used in church, it should be of sufficient size to be visible to the congregation. It may be suspended from the ceiling or placed on a stand. ... It should not interfere with the celebration of the liturgy, nor should it obscure the altar, lectern, or chair.

1513 – When the Advent Wreath is used in church, on the Second and succeeding Sundays of Advent the candles are lighted either before Mass begins or immediately before the opening prayer; no additional rites or prayers are used.

1516 – The Advent Wreath may be blessed by a priest, deacon, or a lay minister [outside Mass].
