³ If the liturgy is a Mass, members of the presbyterate are ordinarily invited to concelebrate. List concelebrants here, or indicate an estimated number.

⁴ If the parish deacon is available, it is recommended that he serve as deacon of the Altar.

⁵ A Master of Ceremony (MC) is needed for more complex liturgies only. This person directs the movements of ministers and servers. The role of MC is not to be mixed with another liturgical role, such as deacon or concelebrant.

⁶ A deacon, if one is present, ordinarily announces the intentions of the Universal Prayer. For pastoral reasons, this may be another reader.

⁸ Ordinary Ministers (bishops, priests, and deacons) are the first choice as Communion Ministers. Extraordinary Ministers are used only if there is not a sufficient number of Ordinary Ministers.

⁹ e.g. Honor Guard

Suggested Musical Selections (or attach a detailed music list) – please include Eucharistic Acclamations, Psalm setting, Gospel Acclamation, etc.¹⁵: _____

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

¹⁵ Norms for liturgical music (e.g. those found in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal and “Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship”) are to be followed at all times. Consider the prescribed musical texts given in the Roman Missal and ritual books (e.g. Entrance and Communion antiphons). As a rule, the Ordinary of the Mass (Gloria, Eucharistic Acclamations, Lamb of God) and Gospel Acclamation are always sung. Be aware of seasonal restrictions on music (e.g. purely instrumental music is not used during Lent).
